It shall be provided, however, that no such termination shall be effective until the Board of Directors has approved the termination by a three-fourths (3/4) majority vote of the directors present at a meeting of the Board of Directors with resolution to such effect. The president of the local association so affected shall be notified in writing by the AAPL Secretary of such action and the membership of AAPL shall be notified by publication that said local association is no longer affiliated with AAPL.

ARTICLE XVI - CODE OF ETHICS

The Code of Ethics shall be the basis of conduct, business principles and ideals for the members of the AAPL; and it shall be understood that conduct of any member of the AAPL inconsistent with the provisions set forth in this Article shall be considered unethical and said individual's membership status shall be subject to review for possible disciplinary action as prescribed in Article XVII of these Bylaws.

In the area of human endeavor involving trading under competitive conditions, ethical standards for fair and honest dealing can be made increasingly meaningful by an association organized and dedicated not only to the definition, maintenance, and enforcement of such standards, but to the improvement and education of its members as set out in the Standards of Practice. Such is the objective of AAPL and such is its public trust.

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Land Professional at all times to promote and, in a fair and honest manner, represent the industry to the public at large with the view of establishing and maintaining goodwill between the industry and the public and among industry parties.

The Land Professional, in his dealings with landowners, industry parties, and others outside the industry, shall conduct himself in a manner consistent with fairness and honesty, such as to maintain the respect of the public.

Section 2. Competition among those engaged in the mineral and energy industries shall be kept at a high level with careful adherence to established rules of honesty and courtesy.

A Land Professional shall not betray his partner's, employer's, or client's trust by directly turning confidential information to personal gain.

The Land Professional shall exercise the utmost good faith and loyalty to his employer (or client) and shall not act adversely or engage in any enterprise in conflict with the interest of his employer (or client). Further, he shall act in good faith in his dealings with the industry associates. The Land Professional shall represent others only in his areas of expertise and shall not represent himself to be skilled in professional areas in which he is not professionally qualified.

ARTICLE XVII - ETHICS COMMITTEE

The Ethics Committee shall be responsible for upholding the ethical standards of the AAPL by making recommendations to the Board of Directors and Executive Committee for appropriate action. The Ethics Committee shall consist of at least nine (9) members, appointed by the President, except for the Assistant Chairman, who shall be appointed by the First Vice President. The President may designate alternate members for a hearing, who may serve in the place of absent Ethics Committee members for the purpose of conducting hearings as provided herein. Except for the chairman and assistant chairman, the identity membership of the Ethics Committee shall be kept confidential other than to the Executive Committee and the Executive Vice-President. This Committee shall also be responsible for decisions on disciplinary action based on unethical actions by a member under the following procedures.

Section 1. Investigation.

Written allegations of misconduct in violation of the Code of Ethics, Standards of Practice or any portion of these Bylaws shall first be submitted to the Executive Vice President at AAPL headquarters. Such allegations should be accompanied by a full statement of the evidence in support thereof. The Executive Vice President shall refer such allegations of misconduct to the Chairman of the Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee may appoint an investigating committee to examine allegations or, in the alternative, investigate charges itself. If in the judgment of said investigating committee there exists probable cause necessitating a hearing, it shall prepare and file with the Ethics Committee a formal complaint against the accused member. Such complaint shall set forth in writing the misconduct alleged and the specific provisions of the Code of Ethics, Standards of Practice, Bylaws, or rules or regulations alleged to have been violated by such misconduct. In addition, the Ethics Committee on its own motion may appoint an investigating committee to examine indications or information of misconduct coming to the attention of such committee when, in its judgment, such investigation is in the best interest of AAPL and its members. The Executive Vice President shall be kept informed of the progress of all investigations and subsequent actions. If the Executive Vice President or Chairman of the Ethics Committee is the subject of an allegation of misconduct, the complaint shall be submitted to the President who shall then appoint an independent investigating committee composed of Active Members, which investigating committee shall refer its findings to the President and Assistant Chairman of the Ethics Committee for such action as may be appropriate pursuant to these ByLaws.

Section 2. Notice of Hearing.

As soon as possible after the receipt of formal charges, the Ethics Committee shall fix the date and place for hearing and shall give to the accused member notice in writing not less than thirty (30) days before said date, accompanied by a copy of the formal charges and a copy of this Article and the current Ethics section of the AAPL policy manual.

Section 3. Hearing.

On the date fixed for the hearing, the attendance of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Ethics Committee or designated alternates shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of the hearing as provided for in this section. Members of the Ethics Committee may attend hearings or other meetings of the committee either in person, telephonically or by such other means as may be reasonable under the circumstances. The accused member may appear with legal counsel before the Ethics Committee, hear any witnesses called in support of the charge and have the option to cross-examine the same, present witnesses of his own, or submit oral or written statements in his own behalf. The investigating committee may likewise appear with legal counsel, present witnesses, and have the right of cross-examination. The accused member may by written notice addressed to the Chairman of the Ethics Committee at AAPL headquarters, postmarked not less than ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing, waive personal appearance and request the Ethics Committee to adjudge the matter on the basis of a written statement of defense accompanying such letter. Failure of the accused member to appear or submit a waiver letter and a written defense shall not prevent the Ethics Committee from rendering judgment on the basis of the evidence available to it on the hearing date. Minutes of the hearing shall be taken by the presiding officer or his designee and shall include, at a minimum, verbatim recitation of the charges, motions, voting results and exhibits offered by either party. These minutes shall be the official record of the hearing.

Section 4. Decision of the Committee.

After the conclusion of the hearing or study of the written defense submitted in lieu thereof, the Ethics Committee shall consider and vote to sustain or dismiss the charges. By a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present, the Ethics Committee shall decide which of the following actions shall be taken: (a) dismissal of complaint; (b) censure; (c) suspension for a stated period of time; (d) allowed to resign; (e) expulsion. The chairman, or the assistant chairman acting in his place, shall notify the accused member in writing as to the committee's decision within a reasonable time but not later than thirty (30) days from the decision. If censure is the decision, the Chairman shall so notify all participants in the proceedings and the Board of Directors.
